UNIFIED SCHEDULE FOR THE DISTRIBUTION OF PUBLICATIONS FROM DECEA FROM 08 JANUARY 2014 TO 07 DECEMBER 2017

1 PRELIMINARY ARRANGEMENTS

1.1 PURPOSE

The intention of this Aeronautical Information Circular (AIC) is to inform about the Unified Schedule for the Distribution of Publications from the Department of Airspace Control (DECEA), which aims to establish deadlines for the publication of AIP Supplements and Amendments to the AIP, AIP-MAP and ROTAER publications, as well as for DECEA publications.

1.2 SCOPE

This AIC contains information that applies to all users who in the course of their duties need to control the various activities that compose the process of updating or receiving AIS Supplements and Amendments to AIP, AIP-MAP and ROTAER Amendments.

1.3 ANNEXES

A – Unified Schedule for the Distribution of Publications from DECEA.

2 SCHEDULE

2.1 DECEA has established specific dates for issuing the publications in order to control the various activities that compose the process of updating or receiving AIS Supplements and Amendments to AIP, AIP-MAP and ROTAER Amendments.

2.2 The schedule contained in Annex A of this AIC distinguishes publications issued on common effective dates from those that meet the rules set forth in the Aeronautical Information Regulation and Control herein after called “AIRAC System”.

2.3 The deadlines established on the schedule to the issues in accordance with the AIRAC System guarantee the receipt of publications by users with at least 28 days (one AIRAC cycle) or 42 days (two AIRAC cycles), as recommended by the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO).

2.4 All schedule dates, as defined in Annex A, can be used to issue any of the publications mentioned in this AIC (AIP Supplements, amendments to AIP, AIP-MAP and ROTAER Publications, and DECEA Publications), according to the nature of the information, as explained in Item 3 of this AIC.

NOTE: ICA will state “AMDT NIL” when a effective date is not used to issue AIP Supplements and Amendments to AIP, AIP-MAP and ROTAER Publications.

2.5 The AIP Supplements and the amendments to AIP and AIP-MAP published in the AIRAC date shall be clearly identified as such.

2.6 Whenever major changes are planned and where additional notice is desirable and practicable, AIRAC date consisting of two cycles may be adopted in order to distribute the publications 56 days in advance of the effective date. This way, users will receive the publications in advance to ensure the training of involved personnel and any necessary adjustments.

3 TYPE OF PUBLICATION AND NATURE OF INFORMATION

3.1 According to its nature, the information will be disseminated in an appropriate publication, as described below:

- a) Permanent information will be disclosed in the Amendments to the AIP, AIP-MAP and ROTAER Publications;
- b) Temporary long-term information (more than three months) will be published in AIP Supplements;
- c) Temporary short-term information (less than three months) will be disseminated via NOTAM, which follows specific legislation;

NOTE: Temporary short-term information involving long texts and/or graphics, supplementing the permanent information contained in the AIP and AIP-MAP will be published as AIP Supplements.

- d) Normative and regulatory information will be disseminated through DECEA publications.

3.2 The information provider / originator may propose the type of Publication as well as its effective date. However, the proposal may not be accepted by the Aeronautical Institute of Cartography (ICA), as the type of information may not satisfy the criteria established for the specific Publication, or if it does not meet the deadlines established by this AIC.

NOTE: CIRCEA 53-2 “Metodologia de Coleta de Dados Aeronáuticos” includes the list of originators and providers according to the type of information.
